

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of
media consolidation.

Sinclair has an
obligation to serve
the public interest,
because it is using
the public airwaves.

Broadcasting a
political hit-piece
in the guise of news
is a violation of
the public interest
and the public's
trust.
